home group reps. Home groups present: none. Homegroup representatives can submit motions and vote after two meetings.

Activities: Hi Family, the NA Picnic was a success. We raised a little over $400 and I'm pretty everyone stayed clean. We are going to do an Ice Skating event in August and will have flyers out next area. We look forward to more great events soon. In loving service, Jake.

H&I: All is well. Commitments are open. Come see me or Sydney to get in service. There seems to be some confusion about H&I commitments. Commitments are given out quarterly. Once that quarter is over, we give out new commitments. To clarify, the 4 quarters are: 1. Jan, Feb, March. 2. April, May, June. 3. July, Aug, Sept. 4. Oct, Nov, Dec. For instance, if your commitment is currently April, May, June, please do not show up to that commitment in July unless you recommitted with me or Sydney. Also, I've been getting more and more people asking to take a commitment for a month. Thats not available. Many people do split a 3 month commitment with another addict to make the load lighter. Just make sure if you are splitting with someone to give us the other person's name and number so we can contact them if we have to. Lastly, there are some rules. H&I commitment chair people AND their speaker both need a year clean to serve. You will be given a packet of pamphlets. This packet includes a sheet with do's and don'ts. Please read this when you take a commitment. Thanks for letting me serve.

Policy: Tonight we had 3 trusted servants in attendance for the Policy subcommittee meeting. Updated Delco Policy booklets have been printed and are available. Revisions have also been sent to digital media. We reviewed the new policy manual this evening and also discussed points in articles V and VI. Specifically, the topics of new and unusual moneys for subcommittee funds. As a reminder, Article VI points 2 and 3, detail holdings of ASC moneys. Additionally, out printing service charged tax on our product. We reminded them we are tax exempt and received a refund of $12 that was mistakenly paid in December 2018. Total cost for 80 copies was $230. As always, thanks for allowing me to serve. Ian
